ORDER

Plaintiff, while a pretrial detainee at the Charleston County Detention Center, proceeding pro se, filed a civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. By Order dated February 17, 2012, Plaintiff was given an opportunity to provide the necessary information and paperwork to bring the case into proper form for evaluation and possible service of process. Plaintiff was warned that failure to provide the necessary information within the timetable set forth in the Order would subject the case to dismissal. After the Order was returned to the court as “undeliverable,” the Order was re-mailed to Plaintiff at the address he provided on a previously-filed form. (See ECF No. 3-1.) Plaintiff subsequently, on April 27, 2012, confirmed in writing that this address was indeed where he could be reached. (See ECF No. 18.)

The time to bring this case into proper form has now lapsed. This case is dismissed *without prejudice pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. See Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
